

Additional Estimated Program Costs UBC Vancouver BSN Program

As a nursing student, there are a number of additional costs you will need to consider beside the tuition fees. The following figures reflect the overall additional required costs for the whole program (including writing the NCLEX exam) for your guidance, but these are subject to change.

2022/2023 UBC Application Fee (for Canadian citizens and Permanent Residents of Canada)	$74.25
2022/2023 School of Nursing Supplemental Application Fee	$134.00
Student Fees (per year)	$1,205.29
Textbooks	$1,525.00
Uniforms - Uniform Central	$160.00
BP Cuff (average vendor cost)	$45.00
Stethoscope (average vendor cost)	$140.00
Photo ID Fee – Artona	$20.00
Student Accident Insurance (2 years @ $7/year)	$14.00
N95 Particulate Mask Fitting (total for 2 annual fit tests)	$70.00
CPR Health Care Provider (HCP) Level Course Fee (2 years @ $95+$75)	$170.00
Canadian Nursing Student association Membership (mandatory) (2 years @ $10/year) + Processing Fee	$20.50
Initial Criminal Record Check	$28.00
Immunization review by UBC Student Health Services	$167.00
NCLEX Prep Resources (Average Cost)	$399.00 - $499.00
NCLEX Registration Fee (paid at the end of the program when the exam is written) - BC College of Nurses & Midwives - NCSBN	$360.00
CRNBC Initial Annual Registration - BC College of Nurses & Midwives	$558.36