

Navigating Lines of Communication within the BSN Program:

Use the guide below to get your questions answered as quickly and accurately as possible.

Questions about the BSN Program

Related to a specific Theory or Lab course

- Questions about course logistics, content, expectations, academic concessions, grading, etc.

Speak with your COURSE LEADER first

Still have questions?

Speak with the PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Related to a clinical course

Some questions may be answered by your Clinical Instructor

Course related questions and/or concerns must be directed to the Course Leader

Still have questions?

Speak with the PROGRAM COORDINATOR

General questions about the BSN program

- Issues may include general questions about program structure, curriculum, clinical practice learning, etc.

Still have questions?

Speak with the PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Other Questions

The School of Nursing (SoN) Academic Advisor is available to consult and advise students at any time during the program. Academic Advising includes questions or issues you may have about how to navigate the BSN program successfully. This includes questions related to personal or academic circumstances.

Speak to the BSN ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Additional Information:
Progressions Flowchart

If you still have questions or concerns, speak with the ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, Undergraduate Programs

DIRECTOR, School of Nursing

Student Support Office (SSO) can help with questions related to the following areas:

Post admission Requirements
Registration Logistics
Student Systems and UBC Resources
Room Booking

Awards Applications
ESN Applications
Program Completion
Placement Logistics

Graduation Applications
Education Verification
How to Advertise an Event
Website Navigation

Please contact bsnprogram@nursing.ubc.ca & the Undergraduate Program Assistant will direct you.

Guide to the Student Services Office is available HERE