

A circular portrait of Ms. Danielle Mlinaritch, a woman with dark curly hair, smiling. She is wearing blue and gold earrings. The background of the portrait is dark blue with white geometric patterns.

Ms. Danielle Mlinaritch

"I am grateful that I chose this intriguing, fulfilling, and invaluable field where I can truly make a difference in my patients' outcomes, comfort, and overall care."

MN-NP 2014
NP Preceptor

Erickson Kline Moerike Nurse Practitioner Preceptor Awards

Danielle Mlinaritsch is an outstanding, long-time preceptor with a wealth of knowledge to share. Her nine years of service as nurse practitioner in ICU and her year-round role as a preceptor illustrate her commitment to advancing the profession.

Her passion for student learning and devotion to student visibility in critical care is paramount to building confidence in her students. She creates a positive learning environment, empowering her students to grow both personally and professionally.

Tailoring her teaching methods to each student's unique learning style, she ensures that everyone feels heard and encouraged. Her dedication to teaching, unwavering support, and advocacy are a testament to her exceptional work, and we are delighted to recognize Danielle Mlinaritsch for her outstanding contributions to the field.