

A circular portrait of Ms. Mitzi Manansala, a woman with dark hair, smiling. The background of the entire graphic is a purple-to-blue gradient with white wavy lines.

Ms. Mitzi Manansala

"It is a privilege to be a UBC SoN alumni and share the mission, vision, and values of our profession. By no means an easy feat, preceptoring is an extension of trust. A partnership of wisdom sharing, supporting, and growth to maintain the standard of care and humanity."

BSN Clinical Preceptor

2023 Award for Excellence as a BSN Clinical Preceptor

According to her students, Mitzi Manansala is “an absolute gift” to the nursing profession.

She enthusiastically engages with students, meeting them where they are in their learning, quickly responding to questions, and inspiring students to reflect on and synthesize their learning—even on days off!

Mitzi is kind yet professional and accountable when giving constructive feedback, so that, under her guidance, students feel safe and confident in their abilities, and are encouraged to engage with the care team on level footing.

Mitzi is a fantastic clinician with more than a decade of clinical experience. A confident model of nursing leadership, it is no wonder that colleagues and students alike hold her in high regard. As do we!