

Navigating Lines of Communication in the BSN Program:

Have a question about the BSN Program?

See Who's Who in the BSN Program for current contact information:

<https://blogs.ubc.ca/bsnhandbook/whos-who/>

There are many other resources and supports available to you including:

BSN Student Career & Academic Advisor	Student Services Office (SSO)	Clinical Practice Placement Office (CPPU)
The BSN Advisor helps students understand university and school policies and provides support and/or referrals for personal, health, or academic issues that may affect their progress. Email: studentadvisor@nursing.ubc.ca Who's Who: https://blogs.ubc.ca/bsnhandbook/whos-who/	The SSO team can help with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Post-admissions requirements</li><li>• Registration logistics</li><li>• UBC student systems &amp; resources</li><li>• Room booking</li><li>• Awards applications</li><li>• Program completion</li><li>• Graduation applications</li><li>• Education verification</li><li>• Website navigation &amp; BSN Blog</li></ul> Email bsnprogram@nursing.ubc.ca to reach the Undergraduate Program Assistant.	"The Clinical Practice Placement Unit (CPPU) is the clinical practice placements coordination team, and we serve as the direct link between the Health Authorities, external practice partners and the UBC School of Nursing (which includes you, the student)." Please consult the CPPU's website for contact information &amp; the many ways their team supports your practice learning: https://nursing.ubc.ca/undergraduate/clinical-practice-placement-unit

Last updated: August 2025