

LOCKED UP: THE SOUL SPEAKS OUT

Action, Reciprocity, Transformation (ART) & Justice

Guided by Indigenous Elders and the immense talent & creativity of people in prison, the UBC ART & Justice team gifted art kits to people in prison at the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, and invited artists and storytellers to share their voice and vision with us and the world. There was an overwhelming response from artists and storytellers eager to share their work.

Please join us at Gallery Gachet to experience the amazing talent of these diverse artists, to honour their work, and to join us in building community towards positive social change!
