UBC School of Nursing | Alumni Recognition Awards

Presented at the School of Nursing Gala in the Spring of 2017

Award of Distinction

Has made a significant impact by contributing to the advancement of nursing and bringing honour to the nursing profession at a national and/or international level.

Alumni Recognition Award

Has made a sustained and meaningful contribution to nurses and/or nursing at a local, community and/or provincial level

Young Alumni Award

Within a relatively short period after graduation (maximum 10 years), has demonstrated exceptional engagement in professional, civic or community activities.

Please fill out this form and attach a letter explaining the aspects of the nominee’s career that you think qualify them for this award.

In addition to your nomination letter, submit the candidate’s resume or CV, and two additional letters of support only.
